

G. W. U. NOTES

Prof. Harris, of the Department of Agriculture, was toastmaster at a recent banquet given by the Architectural Club at the Richmond Hotel. Short addresses were given by B. E. Harris, D. E. Smith, Prof. Brown and Dean Howard Lincoln Hodgkins.

Mr. Chapman and Mr. Boyer, both of the Architectural Department, have been awarded "mentions" by the Beaux Arts Society for architectural designs.

The Architectural Club recently gave a tea at the season of the Fort-ness Boat Club.

George Daily, basketball manager during the past season, who recently was operated on at the University Hospital for appendicitis, is improving rapidly.

Leslie Teller, Engineering College, '18, is at the Fort Myer training camp.

C. B. Traper, of the Engineering College, recently returned from a short visit to New York.

Charles LaFollette, violinist, of Columbia College, recently assisted at a concert given under auspices of the National Library for the Blind.

Miss Ella Gardner, of Columbia College, will attend the summer school at Columbia University, New York City.

Miss Kathleen Moses, of Columbia College, recently attended a hop at Annapolis.

Volunteers from the Medical School, class of '17, have been called for by the George Washington Red Cross Medical Unit, which now is being formed. An effort is being made to organize a corps of twelve physicians, to be officers of the United States Medical Reserve Corps; twenty-one nurses, and a number of enlisted men.

Members of the Medical School, have been assigned to active duty as first lieutenant in the Medical Reserve Corps.

Students in the Nurses' Training School recently gave a dance at the Cairo.

Members of the Intermediate class at the Nurses' Training School are selling sandwiches and cakes for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Invitations to the wedding of H. A. Dennaway, Veterinary College, '18, and Miss Lillian Stewart, of Takoma Park, have been received by their friends at the university. The ceremony will be performed May 28.

E. M. Savage, of the Veterinary College, has successfully passed the civil service examination for veterinarian in the Bureau of Animal Industry.

Members of the three upper classes at the Veterinary College recently attended a clinic on District National Guard horses given by Dean Buckingham. The cavalry type of horse was taken as the subject for discussion.

The Columbian Debating Society has suspended activities for the year on account of many officers and members having enlisted for military service.
